

Santa Fe County Offers...
Free Renewable Energy and Energy Efficiency Advice for Your Home or Business!!

- Reduce your electric, gas, and propane bills!
- Solar Power: ½ the cost it was just a few years ago
- Energy Efficiency: “no brainer” cost savings
- Tax Credits, Incentives, Rebates, Financing
- Presentations to your neighborhood or business organization

For More Info:

992-3044,

cohare@santafecounty.org

www.santafecounty.org/public_works

Esparnza Shelter for Battered Families
Celebrated their Grand Opening on June 23rd.

Senator Nancy Rodriquez, and Commissioners Liz Stefanics, Danny Mayfield and Virginia Vigil were in attendance to celebrate the newly occupied facility for battered families. The new

District 2 E-News

*From the Office of Commissioner
Virginia Vigil*

Santa Fe County Open Burn Restrictions Still In Effect:

The open burn restrictions are due to low winter and spring precipitation, high winds and extreme fire danger. Restrictions include open fires of any kind, campfires, smoking within a County Park, campground or any wild land area.

Fourth of July Reminder :

Please be reminded that all unincorporated areas of Santa Fe County cannot sell or use missile-type rockets, helicopters, aerial spinners, stick-type rockets and ground audible devices. All fireworks within the wildlands in Santa County are banned until further notice.

Santa Fe County 9-1-1 Emergency Notification System:

Santa Fe's Regional Emergency Communication Center invites you to register online to receive emergency notification alerts. The system is designed to quickly alert residents about emergencies and provide them with information to help ensure safe outcomes. To register online please visit: www.santafecountynm.gov under Hot Topics click on: Register for Emergency Communication Notifications; or contact Ken Martinez, Director of Santa Fe County's Regional Emergency Communication Center at: 992-3091.

Junk Mail Opt Out:

Stop waste at the source by opting out of unsolicited mail, catalogs, and phone books with Catalog Choice. It's a fast, facility provides space for victims of domestic violence and administrative offices. The newly constructed facility was made possible thru the extensive collaboration of the City, County and State Governments.

“School Time Duds Community Group Day

“
—

The Board of County Commissioners proclaimed June 30th, 2012 as: School “Time Duds Community Group Day” throughout Santa Fe County. This organization raises funds for families in need of clothing assistance. Live music, food, arts & crafts vendors, a motorcycle rodeo and raffle drawings will be held from 12pm to 7pm at the Santa Fe Brewing Company located at 35-37 Fire Place, off Highway 14.

secure and best of all free if you live in Santa Fe. Go to: www.catalogchoice.org

Santa Fe County Switched to .gov:

In order to be consistent with other governmental agencies, the Board of County Commissioners approved a new website and email address domain change. The new website domain is: www.santafecountynm.gov and the new domain for county employee addresses is: @santafecountynm.gov The old address will continue to work for about a 3 year phase out period.

Happy Fourth of July!

Virginia

To unsubscribe, please write to: rbmaes@santafecountynm.gov